

East Central 4-H Region Award of Distinction

PURPOSE:

To recognize volunteers in the East Central 4-H Region who have acted as ambassadors for 4-H. These people exemplify 4-H spirit, dedication, commitment, involvement and a true belief in the 4-H program. 4-H has been a large part and influence on these people's lives.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE:

Any 4-H volunteer, whether active or no longer involved, who has been involved as a volunteer with 4-H in the East Central Region for at least 10 years.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

Selection will be based only on 4-H involvement and contribution. Based only on the information provided by the nominees on this form.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATION is 4:30 pm, December 1st of the current 4-H year.

Submit the nomination to:

Carole Tkach
President, East Central Regional 4-H Council
Box 490
Coronation AB T0C 1C0
E: marvin.tkach@gmail.com

Presentation of the Award of Distinction will be made at the East Central Regional Leader Recognition Night.

AWARD:

The recipient(s) of this award will have their picture hung on the Wall of Distinction at a location to be determined. The recipient(s) will also receive a personal memento.

TERM OF NOMINATION:

This form will be kept on file for 3 years and reviewed annually. Nominators have the right to update information should your volunteer not be selected this year.

NOMINATION:

Each year a number of volunteers are not accepted simply because the information is not complete enough. We know that they've done more but the selection committee uses only what is written. Please be as complete as possible.
